OVERNIGHT STAYERS – WHAT TO BRING

Accommodation is simple (like school camp if you went to one): bunk beds and basic bathroom facilities.

Linen

- Sheets
- Pillowcase

- Bath towel
- Blanket or sleeping bag (nights can be cold)

Personal Items

- Toiletries
- Medications
- Torch
- Comfortable clothes
- Closed-in shoes (for climbing activities)
- Swimwear
- Insect repellent
- Sunscreen
- Umbrella
- Small fan (if space allows)
- Bible
- Something to “decorate your head” (Saturday evening)

If you are a light sleeper, please consider bringing earplugs and a sleep mask.

ROOM ALLOCATIONS

Rooms will be allocated first according to health or family needs, and then according to requests.

If you have special requirements that you have not yet communicated, please contact us as soon as possible.

ALLERGIES AND MEDICAL INFORMATION

Please ensure we are aware of any allergies or medical needs prior to camp.

MOBILE RECEPTION

Mobile reception can be unreliable at the campsite, although some areas work better than others.

Please download any electronic materials before arriving and let family and friends know you may be delayed in responding to messages.

PLEASE PRAY

Please pray for the camp weekend, for those remaining in the Eastern Suburbs, and for those attending Lugar Brae on Sunday morning.

We are looking forward to strengthening relationships and growing together as followers of Jesus.

The Camp Organisers: Louise Mulroney, Paul Mulroney, Bronwyn Chapman, Peter Chapman, Carlie Chapman, John Watt, Anandit Mathew, Monica Santoso
